

Anton's Cleaners honored for community work

TEWKSBURY — Anton's Cleaners has received the 2009 Industry Positive Recognition Award from The Drycleaning & Laundry Institute (DLI), a trade association for garment care professionals. The award recognizes Anton's long history of sponsoring two community relations programs, Coats for Kids and Belle of the Ball. In the 14 years since its inception, the Coats for Kids program has collected, cleaned and distributed 562,188 coats. For Belle of the Ball, Anton's has collected and cleaned 17,691 prom dresses over the past five years, and hosted five unique boutiques for deserving high school girls. Anton's was chosen from among 10,000 dry-cleaning establishments nationwide.
